

Books Published by BRF

January 2017

These books from the Brethren Revival Fellowship are written from a conservative evangelical Brethren and Anabaptist perspective. Except where noted, they were written by Harold S. Martin, author of many Bible Helps articles. Bible Helps is making these resources available on a donation basis as a courtesy to our readers. The listed values represent Bible Helps' actual cost, and do not include any allowance for postage and handling. Please mark the quantity of each you would like to order, and the amount you are contributing for each.

Brethren New Testament Commentary Series

These commentaries cover the entire New Testament. (See previous page for Old Testament commentaries.) Together with the survey series on the books of the Bible published by Bible Helps, we hope these commentaries will prove to be a very helpful tool to all who are interested in a deeper study of the Word of God.
